Maria Garcia, who speaks little English, is the eighteen year old foreign exchange student from Ecuador, South America. She is staying with Tex and Sandra Gilliam family, whom she says are "good and funny."

Maria will be here until June. She said that she liked it here but misses her family.

Oh . . . They shot me.

Baldness runs in the family.

Don't scare me that way.

Look it's the GOOD YEAR BLIMP up there!

Stand back Cheryl Tiegs.

Come any closer and I will hit you in the nose.

I'll fix it one way or another.

Anyone for a turkey leg?

DRAT! He got away.

What's parallel parking?

He's mine.

Mr. Hollywood

Get me out of here.

I only party with the best . . . me!

Mom get the REAL KILL

I'm trying to smile.

I know it's here somewhere.

You mean I use a SPOON?

What a man!

Should I or Shouldn't I.

What? No ice cream!!!

Don't be fooled by the nose.

Did you see those legs.

I promise I didn't do it.

And I wanted a tricycle.

Bring my hat; my head is catching cold!

I think I saw a ghost

Who said blondes have more fun?

The preppy look is in . . .

It was a Blue Light Special.

I can't believe I ate the whole thing.

You wouldn't dare.

If I hurry, I won't get caught.

I can't believe you said that.

Look at what birdie.

I put my arm around her and she left.

There's a bug in here.

As president I promise to cut taxes.

I'm all warpped up.

Boy! I'm cute.

I love to have my picture taken.

Mom, what happened to my curling iron?

Hi, Ho, Silver Away

You must be kidding.

Smile for the birdie.

Gee, my hair smells terrific.

How about a lift, babe?

Watch out Carl, Here it comes

I always sit like this when my diapers is to tight

Hurry, my mouth hurts

What's going on Man

You embarassed me

Rub-a dub-dub

Look out world here I come

I'm sure I saw a chicken come out of one of these

Anyone for a dance

Goooosh Darn

C'mon you guys

What comes after 2?

Hey babe! Your stroller or mine

Look Dad - Well on my way

You found me

Hey! I know you

I hate these stupid poses

What was the name of the formula

I think I saw a ghost

Another obscene phone call

It's been a long-g day

Who said lemons weren't sour

Where is the eucaliplis leaf

Class Prophecy
Dear Mrs. Arnett,

Hello! I was reminded of you the other day when I ran into Maria Garcia who is now fluently teaching Senior English. She is still trying to get Mark Pennington to turn in his research paper. I thought you would like to know what has happened to the "rest of the best" the "Seniors of '82." Betty Acker now owns a bakery. She specializes in squaw bread and is very fat. Warren Groom owns a computerized barber shop. Larry Gladd, after trying to form his own band, he is now selling "Gladd" trash bags. Eddie Lyons is still in a coma from the shock of graduating. Sandy Thouvenel owns a boutique in Paris with Crystal Mills as her top model; they are doing a booming business said Darlene Rowan, who just returned from her trip around the world. Robin Hill is now a ballet star, and Michelle Perry is "clowning around".

Tinny Nelson married Mark Seabolt, they now have 21 children, but Joni Hiles has topped that with 24. Mike Dause is also married and has two children. He plans to teach them all he knows, which should take about 30 seconds. Vickie Blair is mayor of Tahlequah, now she can hassle the boys all she wants and not get in trouble for it. Steve Bottger moved to Hollywood and is designing sets for Columbia Pictures. Jim Byfield is now a brain surgeon at the Scooby Doo Animal Hospital. Floyd and Roy Langston are still at large after robbing the Ft. Gibson First National Bank, now owned by Todd Lindley. Becky Satterfield and Mike Vickrey are the two highest officers in the U.S. Army. Rhonda Vannoy is now Mother Superior at Saint Mary's Convent, and Mattie Taylor is still training to be a nurse. Don McMahon is rich, after selling one of Mrs. Hix's drawings, and Jerry Livingston is also a millionaire.

Gena Vanderveer is starring in a musical on Broadway, co-starring Missy Meredith and Diane McCluggage. The musical is directed by Paul Boyer. Gary Stewart and Lisa Hornback are still thinking about getting married. Steve Fleak is manager and owner of a Health Spa in Orlando, Florida. He's trying to get it all together, so far every man that goes in comes out a new woman, and every woman a new man. Rhonda Woods is a part-time fortune teller. She also kissed a prince and married a frog, they now have a very happy home.

Marvin Rockman plays professional T-ball for the Mickey Mouse Club. Aaron Robbins was put in the hospital recently for psychiatric observation after severely beating up Travis Thorton. Travis simply asked, "How's the weather up there?" Don Cobler is general manager of all J.C. Penney stores in Ft. Gibson. There aren't any yet but he is still hoping one will pop up. Berry Harris is raising spinach for Popeye, and Greg Delcour is going back to school for his last semester. Tim Thouvenel is a mad scientist and is working on blowing up Ft. Gibson. Ronnie Green was arrested by Chief of Police Billy Ford for hitting a dog. He was sentenced to 20 years in prison by Judge Brady Gilliam. Robert Sterling became a professional rodeo star and was drafted by the Tulsa Twisters as a bull rider. Kim Keeling is hibernating in his underground house. Letha Hayes is still so excited about high school that she has missed every reunion we have had. Jerry Sanders has his own band. He now plays the flute. Derek Owens is the leader of his own motorcycle gang which consists of his younger brother and his son. They all plan to travel across country as soon as they learn to ride without the training wheels.

Kenneth McIntosh owns his own restaurant called "Mac's-n-tots". Terry Rose is presently married and has a half dozen little rose buds following him wherever he goes. Ricky Rowan is generally just hanging around. Danny Rogers is now hosting Mr. Roger's neighborhood. Pete Jackson is a horse jockey and when Brian Jones isn't talking, he is playing his guitar. Robert Sevier drives a truck for the International Rodeo Association of Ft. Gibson. Brett Campbell, Steve Cook, Robbie Cooper, Darryl Gauntt, Chad McFarland and Teddy Martin have started a round-up club, only they still haven't figured out what they are rounding up. David Brown is in demolition derbies now. Kevin Brannon is advertising baby products, for Johnson & Johnson while John Brown is doing advertisements for Jello Pudding. Bill Alexander is making a lot of money singing in a high-class restaurant. He's a bus boy and the manager pays him not to sing. Mark Carman turned into a professional cowboy and is not doing too well. So far, all he has won is a stirrup to an expensive saddle and aluminum belt buckle with Howdy Doodies' initials.

Curtis Rowan has been promoted to manager at IGA. Gary Rutledge is a big time gambler at Las Vegas where you will see show girls, Tracy Smart, Lisa White and Nancy Hardin. Danny Reed disappeared in a UFO after discovering life on another planet. Chuck Richardson has gone bankrupt while running for President. Elmer Young is Vo-Ag instructor at Ft. Gibson. Each day he teaches students which button to push for the new type of plant he or she would like to grow. Bobby Townsend's wardrobe now consists of beads and a head band, which goes good with his shoulder length hair. Bobby can be found almost always at Mac's repeating over and over, "Hey baby what's happening." Kathy Pennington is still wondering what to wear to the prom. Mark Smith is now making saxaphone reeds from trees cut by Billy Irwin. Phillip Kizzia is an executive and works at pumping gas at the U-Tote-M. Tina Hoyd is now famous as a public speaker. Valerie Vickrey got a neat job in a high class department store where she is employed as America's top paid mannequin.

Kevin Poindexter, with his Masters degree in Engineering, is now industriously running the train at Lindenloft. Doreen Lutz has a flower shop and has lost her sense of smell. Debbie Bowen and Jerry Youngblood are divorced for the third time. Debbie is still trying to get a position on the Dallas Cowboys Cheerleading squad. Jerry made his position as the first white ever on the Harlem Globe Trotters Team. David Ford is still trying to get a joke he heard at his Senior Prom. No one has seen nor heard from Mitchell Farrow since graduation. He said he was going on a trip around the world. Linda Wilson, most likely to succeed, went to college for 12 years and now has been seen in movies at the ticket window.

Dino Vann advertises for Ultra Brite Toothpaste while Willie Rae is following his nose for Fruit Loop Commercials. Mike Moore who was being chased by ex-cons is now being chased by the Mafia. Mike apparently told the godfather or someone that he and some guys from Ft. Gibson would whip their rears if they didn't start being more polite to the public. Sheri Lewis is a teacher's aid. She aids in driving them crazy. Randy McCoy, known as Coach McCoy teaches physical fitness at Norwood. Melanie Phillips owns a Phillips Petroleum Co., and is trying to get someone to loan her 25 bucks for a gallon of gas. Scott Matthews hopes to graduate from high school in the spring of 2004.

Steve Kirk hasn't been seen since 1984 when he was stopped heading towards Alaska. He said he was just going for an eskimo pie and would be right back. Sherry Harmon is a model for cover girl licking stamps. Rex Guinn is still working at PX so that he can support his alligator farm. Clint Holt is a pediatrician and has invented two new diseases for babies. Rusty Copeland owns a used car lot called "Trusty Rusty's." Sam Dunn is a movie star after having plastic surgery performed by Dr. Kevin Perry. Steve Hardin in a volunteer taxidermist at Kentucky Fried Chicken Funeral Parlor, while Mike Chewey is owner of a tobacco store as well as a train shop, both businesses are called "Chewy's Chew Chew". Although very successful and very wealthy, Robert Jackson does not have a job and hasn't since high school. He said he inherited his great wealth; however no one died in his family. Kathy Fender flunked her senior year of college after a computer was found in her room after hours. As far as for Trisha Clinkenbeard and me, we are still trying to get our yellow belts in karate.

Now you know all about "the best", and the Seniors of '82 thank you.

Yours truly,
Kathy Emmons

Class Wills

I, Betty Acker, being of sound mind and little body will my ability to sit on the basketball bench for 4 years and put up with Coach Cargill and to my sister Mary to keep my mouth shut.

I, Jerry Youngblood, will my ability to jump in basketball to Rusty Leeds and Ronnie Stotts.

Kenye;
It's been a while since Willie first introduced me to you but it's been a short while. I wish we could have been better friends. Well life's rough. Stay the cute girl you are and study hard in school. Maybe someday you can work at OTASCO in Ft. Gibson.
Love ya,

In Memoriam

Scott Mathews

IN MEMORY OF SCOTT MATTHEWS

He got up today without a care,
Unknown to him what it would bear.
This day was cold in many ways,
For on this day a soul to God was paid.
A soul this day set free,
Never to this world again will see.
What a pity to be lost so young,
Never again to see the sun.
The sun that brought us warmth and light,
That guided-our days and gave us sight.
But this sight never again to him behold,
The story of his death many times retold.
He is only one of many to die,
Oh the world for his soul should cry.
For one day we all must die,
Our soul set free to fly.
His tortured soul one day repaid,
On the Glorious Eternal Day,
Where all souls together will be,
And again his glorious face we'll see.
It is a great loss, to lose someone dear,
But our reunion with him is so very near.
At this time of hardship we look above,
To get our strength, our truth, joy and love.
I hope from his death a lesson we'll gain,
For it would be a pity to think it in vain.
